

Table of contents

Preface _____ 5 Edmund Parker	Part III: ISDA commodity derivative documentation
Part I: Introduction to commodity derivative products	ISDA suite of commodity _____ 149 derivative documentation Edmund Parker Marcin Perzanowski
Overview and introduction _____ 7 to commodity derivatives Edmund Parker	Introduction to the 2005 ISDA _ 175 Commodity Definitions Edmund Parker Marcin Perzanowski
Reasons for entering into _____ 37 commodity derivative transactions Sabine Bertin Aaron McGarry	Standard commodity _____ 223 derivative confirmations Marcin Perzanowski
Part II: Commodity derivative instruments	Bullion transactions _____ 239 Marcin Perzanowski
Over-the-counter (OTC) _____ 63 commodity derivatives Marcin Perzanowski	Weather index derivative _____ 263 transactions Erica Johansson David Johnson
Structured commodity _____ 83 derivatives Sabine Bertin Dharini Collins	Gas derivative transactions _____ 283 Edmund Parker
Exchange-traded _____ 121 commodity derivatives Dharini Collins Nanak Keswani	Power derivative _____ 317 transactions Edmund Parker

Emissions trading _____ 335
Avanthi Gunatilake
Edmund Parker

Freight derivative transactions _____ 367
Avanthi Gunatilake
Edmund Parker

Part IV: Other documentation platforms for commodity derivatives

Overview of documentation produced by the Futures and Options Association ____ 391
Danuta Rychlicka

The European Federation of Energy Traders _____ 433
Ellen Doubtfire
Aimee Lewis

Overview of other documentation platforms for OTC commodity derivatives _____ 459
Amandeep Kharaud

Part V: Tax and regulatory aspects of commodity derivative transactions

Tax aspects of commodity derivative transactions _____ 485
Sandy Bhogal
Catriona Nicol

UK and EU regulatory aspects of commodity derivatives _____ 501
Miles Bake

US regulation of commodity derivatives _____ 529
Jeremiah Wagner

About the authors _____ 581

All authors are (or recently have been) lawyers working at Mayer Brown