

Contents

Acknowledgements.....	xi
Introduction to the third edition.....	xiii
Limitations.....	xiv
References.....	xv
About the author.....	xvii
Useful information.....	xix
Chronology of Regulations made under Part 1 of the Care Act 2014.....	xix
Table of cases.....	xxii
Local government ombudsman complaints.....	xxix
Commissioners' decisions.....	xxix
Abbreviations.....	xxxv
Chapter 1: Residential care provision by social service departments.....	1
The scope of residential care provision.....	1
What is a care home?.....	3
Sources of law.....	5
The Care Act 2014 – overview.....	10
Assessment, eligibility and care planning.....	12
Local authorities.....	16
Responsibility for NHS patients.....	24
Statutory advocacy.....	26
Duties and powers and to meet eligible needs.....	37
Who commissions residential care?.....	37
Discretionary powers to provide residential care.....	42

- Exceptions..... 43
  - Exception for those subject to immigration control ..... 43
  - Choice – do I have to go into a care home? ..... 49
  - Paying for care and deprivations of liberty ..... 60
  - The care planning process..... 62
  - Personal budgets, choice of accommodation and top-ups ..... 65
  - Arrangements for payment of a top-up..... 78
  - After-care for former mental hospital patients..... 79
  - Contracting with a care home ..... 81
  - Statutory responsibilities to self-funding residents facing eviction ..... 94

- Chapter 2: Protecting the home ..... 103
  - Care cost capping – its genesis and its demise..... 103
  - Care capping – what does the Act provide? ..... 108
  - Policy ..... 114
  - What is a deferred payment?..... 117
  - The Care Act provisions ..... 117
  - Mandatory and discretionary deferred payments ..... 118
  - The amounts that can be deferred..... 121
  - The equity limit..... 122
  - Sustainability..... 123
  - Adequate security ..... 126
  - Interest ..... 127
  - Repayment..... 128
  - Administration costs ..... 128
  - Terms and conditions ..... 129
  - Looking after the property ..... 130
  - Information requirements..... 131
  - Ongoing obligations ..... 133
  - The meaning of ‘premises’ (occupied as their main or only home) ..... 136
  - Premises that may be covered by the disregard..... 137

- Chapter 3: Financial assessment..... 141
  - Means testing comes after assessment ..... 141
  - Paying only what you can afford ..... 142
  - The obligation for the authority to carry out – and the adult to cooperate with – a financial assessment ..... 146
  - The minimum income condition and its relation to the upper capital limit..... 151
  - Short-term residents and temporary residents..... 152

The status of the partner's resources.....	154
Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease .....	155
Chapter 4: The assessment of income .....	157
What is income? .....	157
Calculation of income.....	157
Treatment of earnings .....	157
Capital to be treated as income .....	159
Tariff income .....	161
Disregarded income .....	162
Chapter 5: The assessment of capital .....	179
What is capital?.....	179
The upper financial limit for capital .....	184
Full paying residents who are close to the capital limit .....	186
Chose in action .....	188
Cheques.....	188
Money held by solicitors.....	188
Chapter 6: Capital disregards.....	189
Introduction .....	189
Disregards do not need to be claimed .....	189
The upper and lower capital limits .....	190
The disregards relating to the resident's dwelling .....	191
Moving house – sale, purchase, adaptation and gaining access .....	198
The qualifying relative disregards.....	204
Premises occupied by a partner or family .....	209
Property disregards for permanent residents intending to resume independent living .....	212
The discretionary disregard of premises occupied by a third party .....	213
The resident's business interests .....	218
Life policies and investment bonds .....	229
The value of the right to receive any outstanding capital instalments.....	230
The resident's future interest in any property .....	231
Tenanted property and the value of future payments of rent .....	232
Currency conversion costs.....	233
Certain payments from certain approved trust funds .....	233
Non-monetary charitable gifts .....	236
Pensions.....	237
Arrears of specified payments of benefits and tax credits .....	237

Arrears payable to widows, widowers or surviving civil partners. . . . .	238
Certain deposits with housing associations. . . . .	238
Personal possessions. . . . .	239
Static caravans, chalets, houseboats and beach huts . . . . .	239
The right to receive an annuity and its surrender value. . . . .	245
Funds derived from an award for personal injuries to the resident . . . . .	246
The capital value of the right to receive a stream of income . . . . .	251
Social fund payments. . . . .	252
Refunds of buy to let mortgage tax relief . . . . .	252
Capital treated as income. . . . .	252
Certain compensatory and other welfare receipts . . . . .	253
Payments to former WWII prisoners of the Japanese. . . . .	253
Compensation payments for sufferers of variant Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease and their relatives . . . . .	254
Age-related payments . . . . .	254
Other disregards . . . . .	255
A note on funeral plan payments . . . . .	255
Chapter 7: Income and capital available upon application . . . . .	257
What is income or capital available upon application? . . . . .	257
Contingent interests . . . . .	259
Benefits available upon application . . . . .	260
Third party payments . . . . .	261
Notional income and capital in private pensions. . . . .	261
Chapter 8: Deprivation of income and capital . . . . .	265
False statements . . . . .	265
Asset adjustment. . . . .	268
Sources of law . . . . .	269
Diminishing notional capital. . . . .	270
An analysis of Regulations 17(2) and 22(2) . . . . .	271
The statutory guidance . . . . .	297
Investigation and proof . . . . .	298
Deprivation must make a difference to the means assessment. . . . .	299
Reasonableness . . . . .	300
The end of discretion. . . . .	301
Enforcement. . . . .	301
Use of existing capital to pay fees . . . . .	301
Can a deprivation be traced back through a number of transactions? . . . . .	302
Can notional capital be subject to a statutory disregard? . . . . .	302

Payment of debts.....	305
The rule on diminishing notional capital in deprivation cases.....	309
Deprivation as a result of the purchase of personal possessions.....	312
Chapter 9: The valuation of assessable capital .....	313
Introduction.....	313
An easy way to save time and effort.....	313
Capital is not assessed net of debt.....	313
Current market value.....	314
The current market value of land .....	321
Matters arising upon sale of land .....	331
Valuation of the former matrimonial home .....	335
Specific cases.....	338
Deductions from value.....	344
Capital held abroad .....	350
Third party interests in property .....	351
Chapter 10: Care fees avoidance – making gifts and creating trusts ....	361
Introduction.....	361
Giving advice .....	363
The Law Society Practice Direction on Gifting 2017.....	364
The risks of transferring an asset .....	373
Alternatives .....	377
Severance of jointly held assets.....	381
Trusts .....	386
Absolute and discretionary trusts.....	390
Avoiding the pitfalls of outright gifts.....	391
Are they effective?.....	392
Can a local authority pressure trustees?.....	394
Trustee investment powers.....	396
Pressure on trustees to distribute capital .....	397
Sham trusts .....	398
Cases involving allegations of mental incapacity .....	399
Cases involving fraud and undue influence.....	400
The use of Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependents) Act 1975 (IPFDA) .....	401
A trust as a provider of ‘top-up’ care fees .....	402
Can a local authority enforce a care fees debt against trustees?.....	402
Personal injury trusts.....	402

Chapter 11: NHS continuing care . . . . . 405

- The health and social care divide . . . . . 406
- Reorganisations . . . . . 408
- Caring for the future . . . . . 414
- Summary of the history . . . . . 425
- Developments after 1993 . . . . . 426
- Health Service Guidance 95(8) . . . . . 427
- Coughlan v. North and East Devon Health Authority . . . . . 431
- Funded nursing care . . . . . 439
- HSC 2001/015: LAC (2001)18 . . . . . 443
- The Wigan case . . . . . 445
- The Grogan case . . . . . 445
- The statutory test . . . . . 448
- The quantity test . . . . . 449
- The quality test . . . . . 452
- The impact of the Care Act 2014 . . . . . 455
- The NHS Continuing Care Framework: How is it meant to work? . . . . . 460
- Application of the quantity and quality tests to advanced dementia patients . . . . . 464
- Who is entitled to an assessment? . . . . . 466
- Can a full assessment be delegated? . . . . . 467
- The checklist . . . . . 467
- Timescales . . . . . 468
- NHSCHC assessment must pre-date an FNC assessment . . . . . 469
- The multi-disciplinary team . . . . . 469
- Hospital discharge procedures . . . . . 471
- The Fast Track pathway . . . . . 472
- NHS continuing care case reviews . . . . . 478
- Remedies . . . . . 482

Chapter 12: Remedies . . . . . 489

- The current system and how we got here . . . . . 491
- The 2009 Regulations . . . . . 500
- The state of the NHS complaints procedure . . . . . 506
- The complaints system in England and Article 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998 . . . . . 510
- The Care Act 2014 . . . . . 512
- The monitoring officer . . . . . 512
- A complaint to the Secretary of State . . . . . 513
- Making a complaint to the Local Government Ombudsman . . . . . 514

Complaints to the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman (PHSO) .....	521
Judicial review .....	525
First step – complaints procedure or judicial review pre-action protocol? ..	527
Second step – Ombudsmen or judicial review .....	530
Reasons challenges .....	538
Land registry disputes on registered charges .....	539
Complaints against independent providers of residential care .....	540
The duty of candour .....	541
The NHS constitution .....	541
Advocacy services .....	541
A conclusion on access to effective remedies in England .....	543
Chapter 13: Methods of enforcement available to local authorities .....	547
Powers under the Care Act .....	547
Recovery of resources from the recipients of gifts .....	551
The Insolvency Act 1986 – recovery of gifts from the recipients and trustees .....	555
Transactions at an undervalue – Insolvency Act 1986, sections 339–342 .....	556
Transactions defrauding creditors – Part 16 of the Insolvency Act 1986 ..	563
General litigation risk .....	569
Local authorities as debt collectors .....	569