

Table of contents

Preface	5
Chapter I: Some introductory thoughts for in-house counsel	7
Chapter II: Essential knowledge about the Solicitors Regulation Authority	13
Chapter III: Essential ethical knowledge for in-house counsel	25
Chapter IV: Sources of ethical knowledge for in-house counsel (1): An introduction to the SRA Standards and Regulations – the SRA Principles	35
Chapter V: Sources of ethical knowledge for in-house counsel (2): SRA Code of Conduct for Solicitors, Registered European Lawyers and Registered Foreign Lawyers	63
Chapter VI: Sources of ethical knowledge for in-house counsel (3): Other sections of the SRA Standards and Regulations	113

Chapter VII: Agreeing responsibilities – the pinch points	123
Chapter VIII: Setting the tone (1): The in-house counsel as team leader	135
Chapter IX: Setting the tone (2): The lone in-house counsel	163
Chapter X: In-house counsel in the boardroom	177
Chapter XI: Tensions – working in an international business	183
Chapter XII: The scope for other activities	189
Chapter XIII: The in-house counsel’s role after the COVID-19 pandemic	203
Chapter XIV: Conclusion	207
About the author	215
Index	217
About Globe Law and Business	223