

Table of contents

Acknowledgements	7
I. Introduction	9
1. Trends in trust disputes	10
1.1 Deep fakes and the metaverse	10
1.2 Family office conflicts	10
1.3 Compliance-driven conflict, litigation and court activity	11
2. Common causes of trust disputes	12
2.1 Poor drafting	12
2.2 Communication failures	14
2.3 Lack of education	15
2.4 Disenfranchisement	16
2.5 Appointment of the wrong trust officials	16
2.6 Diminished capacity (including undue influence)	19
2.7 Challenges of recollection	22
3. Our approach	22

II. Trust dispute avoidance through design	23
1. Managing the settlor’s expectations	23
2. Good drafting	24
3. Creating the appropriate governance structure	27
3.1 Checks and balances	27
3.2 Selecting the right person for each role	30
3.3 Beneficiary committees	36
3.4 Qualifications	36
3.5 Fiduciary versus non-fiduciary capacity	39
3.6 Term limits	39
3.7 Age limits	40
3.8 Designing the right process for succession (appointment and removal)	41
3.9 Compensation	41
3.10 Sharing information	44
3.11 Avoiding co-trustee dysfunction	44
4. Communicating with the beneficiaries (or not): the duty to inform and the use of quiet trusts	47
5. Incorporating flexibility and adaptability into the trust	50
5.1 Power to add and remove beneficiaries	51
5.2 Variation or modification	53
5.3 Decanting	53
5.4 Changing situs	54
5.5 Changing governing law	54
5.6 Termination	55
6. Selecting appropriate liability and evidentiary standards	55
7. Using no-contest or forfeiture provisions to discourage disputes	56
8. Incorporating processes for non-judicial dispute resolution	57
9. Getting the litigator’s perspective during the drafting process	59
10. ‘Failure mode and effects analysis’: early detection of potential issues and warning signs	66

III. Minimising trust disputes through thoughtful execution	69
1. Family dynamics redux	69
2. Witnesses	70
3. Presence of individuals other than the settlor and witnesses	72
4. Self-imposed formalities	72
5. Lifetime approval of trusts	73
IV. Administration: deploying best practice and procedures	75
1. Follow the terms of the trust	76
2. Engage proactively	76
3. Communicate with the beneficiaries	77
3.1 Ongoing due diligence	77
3.2 Proactive trust accounting	79
4. Maintain good records	80
4.1 Retention practices and policies – the ‘hit by a bus’ scenario	80
4.2 Trustees and other trust officials	80
4.3 Distributions	81
4.4 Investments	82
4.5 Conflict transactions	83
4.6 Compensation	83
4.7 Taxes	84
5. Evaluate the trust and administration regularly	84
5.1 What has changed?	85
5.2 Would a change of situs be better for the trust?	86
5.3 Is modification (variation) or decanting warranted?	87
5.4 Should the trust be divided into separate trusts?	87
5.5 Are the right people (still) in the right roles?	89
5.6 Is your reliance on outside guidance (still) reasonable?	89
5.7 Are the trust officials working together effectively?	91
6. Evaluate the trust and administration when an issue arises (or maybe not)	92

7. Utilise experienced litigators outside of litigation	92
7.1 The devil’s advocate: having a litigator	95
review proposed changes
V. Reducing the risk of disputes at termination	97
1. Releases, judicial accountings and indemnification	98
2. Providing information	102
3. Termination fees	104
4. Transferring assets	104
VI. Managing trust disputes	107
1. Avoid exacerbating the problem	107
2. Maintain open lines of communication	110
3. Taking a thoughtful position	111
4. Preserving lawyer–client privilege	115
5. Litigation management	116
6. Advice for beneficiaries when a dispute arises	118
VII. Conclusion	121
Notes	122
About the authors	129
About Globe Law and Business	131