

Table of contents

| | |
|--|----|
| I. Introduction: the rising role of women in family offices and family businesses | 5 |
| Sasha Lund Core Values Consulting | |
| II. Hidden stumbling blocks: how female family firm successors in Germany navigate their professional and private lives | 15 |
| Friedrich Kammerlander Zebracorn GmbH | |
| Nadine Kammerlander Institute of Family Business and Mittelstand; WHU – Otto Beisheim School of Management | |
| Rolf Wilmes WHU – Otto Beisheim School of Management | |
| III. Balancing tradition and innovation in family offices | 29 |
| Larisa B Miller Phoenix Global Group Holdings | |
| IV. The next generation of wealth holders and advisers | 45 |
| Jennifer Wines Invisible Wealth Consulting | |

V. How security and reputation is evolving for the modern family office65
Kate Bright
UMBRA International Group
India Wooldridge
Catalyst

VI. Artful investments: how women are shaping the future of art in family offices77
Ann Priftis
Krause Group; CP/Art

VII. Balancing roles: challenges and strategies for success for women working in family wealth and business89
Jessica McGawley
Dallington Associates

VIII. Building a supportive community: mentorship and networking105
Elizabeth Bagger
Avanti Family Business Advisory LLC
Brian Thompson
Ducere Advisory

IX. Women, wealth and divorce – pioneering female litigants in family law119
Miranda Fisher
Charles Russell Speechlys LLP

X. Philanthropy and impact: women leading the charge131
Donzelina A Barroso
DA Barroso Consulting LLC

About the authors143

About Globe Law and Business155